

Lana Wood

Lana completed her Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Acadia University in 1982. Since then, she has built her career in the Canadian insurance industry, holding leadership positions with RSA, Marsh, and as President and CEO of Western Financial Group. Born in Halifax, her career has taken her across Canada working in Edmonton, Calgary, Toronto, and Vancouver.

Today, Lana is an Executive Vice President at Northbridge Insurance. In this position, she plays an integral role in building the Northbridge Insurance brand presence, growing business in the Western marketplace, and as a member of the Executive Management Team for Northbridge Financial. Over the course of her career, Lana has built an impressive track record for fostering strong relationships and creating winning strategies.

While Lana and her husband Verne ('81) call Calgary home, they frequently find themselves in Vancouver. When she's not in the office, Lana enjoys travelling and spending time with her husband and their two sons.

Lana is a Fellow Chartered Insurance Professional and has been a member of the Acadia University Board of Governors since 2015.
