

Ms. Nancy McCain

Nancy McCain joined the Board of Governors in May 2007. A 1982 Acadia graduate with a Bachelor of Arts, Nancy currently lives in Toronto with her husband and three children. Following the completion of her MA at New York University, Nancy pursued a career in the arts working for Sotheby's in London and New York, and then at the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto. She is currently involved in several organizations, as Chair of The Arts Access Fund, a member of the Board of Directors of Sick Kids Hospital Foundation, Soulpepper Theatre Company and the Power Plant Contemporary Art Gallery, where she is past President. Her previous roles include Chair of the Canadian Art Foundation and member of the board of Arts for Children of Toronto