

Mr. Arthur Irving

Arthur Irving grew up in Saint John, New Brunswick. Before beginning his working career with Irving Oil, he attended Acadia University. Arthur is an outdoor enthusiast and has canoed many rivers in the high Arctic. He is an avid sportsman and conservationist, and is a long time supporter of Ducks Unlimited Canada, having served on the Board and also as President.

Mr. Irving became Chancellor of Acadia University in 1996. He is dedicated to ensuring Acadia's standing as Canada's leading undergraduate university. His commitment to the enhancement of Acadia exists in the Irving Family's recent gift to the University: the K.C. Irving Environmental Science Centre and the Harriet Irving Botanical Garden.
