

Charles Coll has been active as an Alumnus since graduating from Acadia in 1984 with his Bachelor of Business Administration. First in Ottawa, and now, living in Prince Edward Island, Charles has served in many Acadia-related roles. He was a member of the board of the Associated Alumni of Acadia University for many years, culminating in his term as President from 2010-12. He currently sits as a member of the F.C. Manning School of Business Advisory Board. Charles has been involved in his community through numerous arts, sports, and health-related groups, as a volunteer, coach, board member, and at the executive level. He is married to Kathryn (MacLeod) Coll (BBA '84). They are the proud parents of Charlie (BBA '15), and Hailee (BKIN '17).
