

Christine Pound

Christine works with her clients on a range of issues, including finding the most tax efficient way to structure a purchase or sale of a business; protecting her clients' interests in large, multi-year contracts; and finding the most operationally effective and tax efficient way to structure their business operations. Her clients span a wide variety of industries, including: Construction, Waste management, Environmental services, Shipbuilding, Banking, Automotive, Radio & telecommunications, and Owner managed business.

Christine graduated from Acadia with a BSc in 2000, and from Dalhousie in 2003 with a LL.B.

She is involved in many committees including, Member, Canadian Bar Association, Firm Practice Group Leader, Tax Estates & Trusts, Stewart McKelvey, 2014 – present, Member, Young IFA (International Fiscal Association) Network Committee 2014 – present, Member, Halifax Gold Medal Plates Committee, 2013, Member, Acadia University F.C. Manning School of Business Advisory Board, 2014 – present, Chair, board of directors, Laing House, 2016 – present, Director, Associated Alumni Acadia University, 2003–2009, Director, Laing House, 2009 – 2015, Member, Canadian Tax Foundation, 2004 – present, Member, Young Practitioners Steering Committee, Canadian Tax Foundation , 2008 – 2010