

Ms. Gwen Phillips

Gwen Phillips was the Mayor of the Town of Wolfville from 1991-97. Her working careers included biological research with the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, executive assistant with the Nova Scotia government, consultant to the Federation of Canadian Municipalities and project management with Acadia University.

As a community volunteer she has served on numerous Boards and organizations, including the Board of Governors of NSCC, Landmark East School, Ken-Wo Golf Club, Kings Community Economic Development Agency, and the Wolfville Library Foundation. She is currently serving as Chair of the Pacesetter Group for Our Health, Our Community campaign to revitalize the Valley Regional Hospital and develop Nova Scotia's first Hospice. She was delighted to join Acadia's Board of Governors in 2010.

A BSc (Hons) graduate of Mount Allison University and an MSc graduate of McMaster University, she is proud of the several ties she has to Acadia. A resident of Wolfville for over 30 years, she has worked with Acadia's research community, rounded out her education by taking arts classes at Acadia, served on Senate and the Art Gallery Advisory Board and saw her daughter Maggie graduate with a B Kin (Hon) degree in 2000!
