

Mr. Paul Jewer

Paul has an extensive background in financial leadership. As Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for High Liner Foods, he leads the company's finance, controllership, internal audit, investor relations, financial planning and information technology functions.

Paul is a Fellow Chartered Professional Accountant (FCPA, FCA), and holds the ICD.D designation, began his career with Ernst & Young LLP providing audit, tax, valuation and business advisory services for a variety of clients in various business sectors. Prior to joining Sobeys Inc. in 2003, he held a number of progressively senior finance positions in the technology sector. Paul graduated in 1994 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Acadia University. In 1997 he received his Chartered Accountant's designation.

Paul has been chair of the Board of Governors of Acadia University since October 2009 and was previously President of the school's Alumni Association. Paul is also Chair of the Board of Governors of the Halifax Grammar School, and is a member of the Board of Governors of the Atlantic Provinces Economic Council (APEC).

In May 2008, Paul was recognized as a recipient of Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ award, which annually honours 40 Canadians under the age of 40 for vision, leadership, innovation, achievement and community involvement.

Paul resides in Halifax with his wife Nadine (Acadia Class of 94) and their two young children Ella and Ethan.